NPU [Non Plus Ultra] collection

NPU [Non Plus Ultra]

design 1990

This design, which has been maintained over the years, makes this collection clearly recognizable on the international production scene. The NPU [Non Plus Ultra] collection stands out for its unique design, achieved by combining the different Strato collections with the sophisticated one-piece worktops which resemble a sculpture.

Contemporary yet timeless.

MILANO 1990

The love for cooking and food brought Gianna and Marco to create their own customized kitchen. Strato presented the first Non Plus Ultra collection in Milan with a 20 cm thick one-piece worktop.
